

By Mail, to Readers of a
Single Class, Who Spend
$12,000,000 Annually

The University Hatchet

Offices: 2016 H St. N.W.
Phone: DIstrict 5170
Plant: SHepherd 2321

VOL. 31, NO. 24

WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 19, 1935

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER
POST OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Troubadours Push Preparations for Show Next Week

Cast, Choruses Start Strenuous Rehearsal, Coordination

With but one week left before production, all departments of the Troubadours are applying pressure that the "Bride of the Incas" may be in tip-top shape for the opening next Tuesday night at the Roosevelt Auditorium.

Estelle Wentworth, dramatic coach, announced that the cast and the singing choruses would rehearse every night this week. Dress rehearsals are scheduled for Saturday and Monday nights, when Miss Wentworth and Samuel Detweiler, managing director, will coordinate the cast, singing choruses, and dancing chorus into a production of dramatic continuity.

Scenery Is Set

The scenery is in sections and already is stored backstage in the Roosevelt Auditorium. Moreover, Cyril Flannery and his company of stage hands expect to work nightly this week to assemble the sets and have them in place for the Saturday night dress rehearsal.

Margaret Moore, costume director, and her assistants are working their needles with increasing speed as the opening night draws near. Although the principals of the cast are using professional costumes, Miss Moore and her colleagues have no small job to provide the choruses with 150 costumes, including the designing and making the Inca ceremonial robes.

All Departments Working

Other departments, not directly connected with actual production, are experiencing similar activity. William Corley, of the publicity staff, announced the high school poster contest deadline as midnight Thursday. The selections will be made Friday by the publicity staff.

Also, by Wednesday, printed posters advertising the "Bride of the Incas" will be placed at strategic points about the campus and in shop windows.

Tickets for the show may be obtained from Floyd Sparks, business manager, at the Roosevelt Auditorium.

82 Percent Pass D. C. Bar Exam.

Ten Graduates Out of 13 Successful; 41 of 49 Undergraduates

Eighty-two percent of the George Washington law students who took the last District of Columbia bar examination passed, according to statistics released by Prof. William C. VanVleck, dean of the Law School.

The percent of the total number of students from all schools who passed the examination was 54.6. Thirteen George Washington graduates stood the examination, while 10 passed. Forty-nine undergraduates took the examination, while 41 were successful in passing.

Forty-four University students, of 54 who took the examination for the first time, passed. Only 221 students, representing all schools, out of 423 participants passed the examination.

Seventy-four percent of the George Washington students taking the June examination last year passed, while eighty-three percent passed the December 1933 examination.

George Washington students passing the December 1934 examination were: Edward E. Abbott, Paul C. Aiken, Clyde B. Aitchison, Wesley Anott, Frank H. Bronaugh, Louis G. Cartwright Jr., Douglas A. Clark, Lewis C. Coffin, Benjamin E. Cohn, Harold B. Corwin, Carroll J. Doering, J. Richard Earle, Glen E. Hardy, William B. Hanback, John E. Hendricks, Thomas S. Jackson, Vernet C. Kaufman, David M. Kennedy, Howard Ken-

(Continued on Page 4)

Yearbook Heads Editing Copy As Deadline Nears

The Cherry Tree goes to press this week.

All copy has been turned by staff members and is now in the hands of Helen Bunten, copy editor, who is assembling it in the proper form for publication. All pictures are in, and are being placed in their proper sections. The entire copy staff is working continually, and expects to be finished by tomorrow.

With the yearbook going to press, the opportunity to take advantage of the subscription plan offered this year will soon be over. This calls for the payment of $2 now and the remaining $2 on receipt of the book May 15. Books must be ordered now, as only a limited supply will be printed.

Plans for High School Week Are Abandoned

Pierson Tells Student Council Marvin Favors Postponement of Drive Due to Disorder Arising From Building Project

Plans for the High School Week, sponsored by the Student Council, were abandoned Thursday after Theodore Pierson, Council president, told the governing body that President Marvin favored postponement of the drive which would have brought high school boys to the University next month as its guests.

Not Favorable

"To bring students to the University while there would be turmoil and disorder on the campus because of the University's building project, which gets under way very soon, would not cast a favorable impression of our school on the boys' minds," the Council president stated.

Following the suggestions made by President Marvin through

Cue and Curtain To Hold Tryouts Tomorrow, Thurs.

Final Play To Be Produced in May; Name Not Yet Announced

Spurred on by the success of its last production, "Goodbye Again," which played last week to a full house with S. R. O. signs, Cue and Curtain starts tryouts this week for its next play, to be produced about the middle of May.

Tryouts will be held tomorrow and Thursday at 8 p. m. in Corcoran 23 and 24, Karl Gay, assistant director in charge of production, announced Sunday.

Board Meets Tonight

In conjunction with this action, and in conformity with Cue and Curtain's policy of playing a director for one play only, the Drama Board will meet tonight to select the director for the new play.

All active members of the club will also meet tonight, in Corcoran 23 at 8 o'clock, to elect new members to the club, and probably to name a new production manager, to fill the position left vacant when Gay resigned due to graduation.

The title of the piece can not be released at this time, but if technicalities concerning copyright and royalties can be overcome, Cue and Curtain will present as its third play of the year, the most ambitious production of its history, according to Richard P. Creyke, member of the Production Board.

The play under consideration will require an unusually large cast, and the entire student body, regardless of previous dramatic experience or membership in Cue and Curtain Club, is urged to attend the tryouts.

Hatchet Will Run Contest for Queen

Haley, Futrovsky, Arrange System To Choose Most Popular Woman

The contest to elect the Queen of the University: Fiesta will be conducted this year under the auspices of The Hatchet.

This announcement was made late Sunday night following a conference between James W. Haley, editor of The Hatchet, and Sam Futrovsky, director of the Fiesta.

Ballots for the contest will be printed in The Hatchet, Haley stated, and are to be returned to the Publications Office. All women students are eligible for election, and all regularly enrolled students are eligible to vote.

The sponsorship of the contest by The Hatchet marks a distinct departure from previous methods of electing the University Queen. Three different systems were used in as many years, varying from the sale of votes by sorority women in 1932 to the establishment of a regular polling booth in Corcoran Hall during last year's Fiesta.

The decision to run the contest through the medium of The Hatchet this year was motivated by several considerations, Director Futrovsky said. "In the first place, I am anxious that a larger group of students take part in the selection, and I am confident that this end will be attained by publicizing the contest through the columns of The Hatchet," he stated.

Moore to Address Chapel

Pierson to the Council, efforts of the High School Week committee will be diverted toward cooperation with the University in publishing a prospectus of the campus which will herald the High School Week movement next year.

This year's movement, directed by Machin Gardner, proposed to bring 60 to 75 boys to the University next month as the guests of the University and local fraternities.

Cooperation on the part of the University administration was assured until the recent building project was approved. Although the Interfraternity Council voted favorably at the outset on the High School Week movement, only a few members have shown an active interest in carrying it out.

Bracken Answers Attacks on Center Party's Platform

"Assumed Initiative in Stating Attitudes on Problems", He Says

As a result of the public criticism that has been voiced in reference to the Center Party's platform, printed in last week's Hatchet, by both the Right and Left Parties, John Bracken, chairman of the Center Party, issued the following statement late Sunday night:

"The announcement of the Center Party's platform has been met with destructive as well as constructive criticism. We willingly assumed the initiative in stating our attitude on various social and governmental problems and welcome criticism of the platform. We do suggest, however, that as our opponent parties are only justified when these parties demonstrate their ability to write a better one."

The Center Party announces the appointment of Paul Brogren to the position of promotion chairman. His committee has not yet been appointed but will act to promote student interest in the Union as a whole and in the Center Party in particular.

The new promotion director announces that there will be a dinner of members of the Center Party at Jenner's Cafeteria Thursday at 7 p. m. He wishes to make clear that all persons interested in the Center Party and its platform are invited to attend.

Brogren, in his capacity as general secretary of the Union, announces that all persons interested in the Union as a whole should turn in to him their names and addresses.

Social Register Rapidly Filling

Dates are being filled for several months in advance according to the Social Events Register, posted beside the bulletin board on the second floor of the Publications Building and also printed on page two of The Hatchet.

The Social Events Register will appear each week in The Hatchet as well as in the Publications Building. Organizations who wish to register events should drop the information in the box for this purpose on the second floor of the Publications Building. The events will then be scheduled on the register and in The Hatchet.

'Ziman To Direct Fiesta Skits, Shows' - Futrovsky

Edmund Ziman, author of "Take It Easy", Troubadour's highly successful comedy hit of 1934, will direct the 1935 Fiesta vaudeville shows, Sam Futrovsky, director of the Fiesta, announced Sunday.

Tryouts for the shows have been set for April 2 and 3 with all University students eligible to tryout for the several dozen acts needed for the vaudeville.

Chance for All

In accepting his appointment as Fiesta vaudeville chairman, Ziman stated that "the 1935 Fiesta vaudeville will be the most distinctive show of its kind ever seen on a Washington stage. In its presentation there will be opportunity for every student in the University, whether fraternity or non-affiliated, to exhibit his talent."

All types of skits will be embodied in the program of the vaude-

(Continued on Page 4)

Left Party Accepts Center's Challenge

The Left Party of the projected Student Union last week immediately accepted the challenge of the Center Party to a public debate on April 10 upon the planned student strike. The text of the telegram of acceptance follows:

John Bracken, Centerist Chairman,
Office of the Attorney General,
Department of Justice,
Washington, D. C.

We heartily accept your proposal for a public debate, however, we request that the wording of the question be altered to conform with the time and purpose of the strike which will be held April 12.

HARVEY THIRLOWAY,
Chairman, Party of the Left.

Lefts Drawing Up Platform of Party, Thirloway States

"Will Present Concise Stand Upon Issues for Student Approval"

"The platform of the Party of the Left is in the process of construction, but will, when finished, present a concise stand upon major issues for the approval of the student body," Harvey Thirloway, leader of the Leftist Party of the projected George Washington Union, stated when questioned last night.

Prominent members of the Left Party as a group were pleased with the liberal platform of the Center Party, presented last week. However, whereas the Center Party has announced they will favor government control, the program of the Left will undoubtedly advocate government ownership of the basic industries.

"The failure of the NRA definitely proves that government control of industry is impossible without the aid of social welfare," he said. "We feel that social ownership of industries is the best way to eliminate the present inadequacies of social welfare," he concluded.

The Left Party holds its regular meetings on Wednesday nights at 7 o'clock at Jenner's cafeteria.

Gamow Gives 3rd Talk on Physics

Will Speak Friday on "Artificial Transformation of Elements"

Dr. George Gamow, visiting professor of nuclear physics, will speak on the "Artificial Transformation of Elements" Friday at 8:15 p. m. in Corcoran 39. This is the third lecture in his series of five on "Modern Physics."

Capacity crowds heard his past two lectures. On March 8 he spoke on the "Atomic Nucleus," and February 15 on "The Principles of Uncertainty."

These lectures have been attended by scientists from the Government departments, members of physics departments from high school and colleges, members of scientific and learned societies, and University students. The entire series is free and open to the public.

Right Party To Meet Tonight In Corcoran 10

The Party of the Right will meet tonight in Corcoran 10. All interested are invited by Chairman Phares to attend.

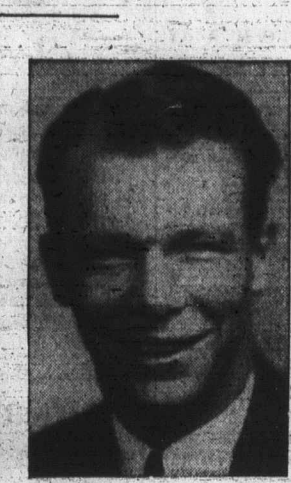

Murphy, Pierson Debate North Carolina on WOL

ARTHUR MURPHY

Arthur Murphy and Ted Pierson will represent George Washington in its debate with the University of North Carolina on the subject, "Resolved: That the nations should agree to prevent the international shipment of arms and munitions," over station WOL from 1:30 to 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Donald Seawell and Winthrop Durfee will uphold the affirmative for North Carolina. Winthrop

TED PIERSON

Durfee has debated against G. W. twice before.

Arthur Murphy is a member of Delta Sigma Rho, honorary public speaking fraternity, and has debated both here and at American University. Ted Pierson is a veteran George Washington debater. His last appearance was when he delivered the second negative speech and rebuttal against William and Mary on March 4.

Frosh To Speak Tomorrow Night In Annual Meet

Seven Men, One Woman Have Submitted Acceptable Manuscripts

The Freshman Speaking Contest sponsored by Sigma Delta Phi, women's speech arts fraternity, will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in Corcoran 20. It will be the fourth annual contest sponsored by the society.

Seven men and one woman have submitted acceptable manuscripts to the contest committee and will compete in the contest, according to Amanda Chittum, president of Sigma Delta Phi.

Subjects Listed

Edwin M. Cage will speak on "The Voice of the Cabinet in Congress," Rebt Edelman will discuss "A Call to College Youth for Academic Freedom in the College," Melvin E. Lewis will speak on "Adolph Hitler," Frank Whitbeck will discuss the "Preservation of the American Security."

John P. Southmayd will talk on "An Evaluation of the New Deal," Edward J. Taggart on "War," Sanford Wechsler on "A Task for Youth," and John E. Willard on "Why We Do Not Want a Dictatorship."

Judges Announced

Judges for the contest will be Dewitt Bennett, Gilbert Hall, and Mrs. Frank Smith. Mrs. William C. Johnstone, wife of the dean of the Junior College, will act as chairman.

Debaters Asked To Pick Captains

Groups in Contest Should Notify Roberts of Representatives

Each fraternity and sorority entered in the annual Delta Sigma Rho interfraternity-intersorority debating tournament must submit the name of a member who will be responsible for its team's appearance to the office of the public speaking department before 5 o'clock this afternoon, according to Henry G. Roberts, assistant professor of public speaking.

The subjects to be debated will be sent to the various competing organizations tomorrow.

Delta Sigma Rho, honorary debating fraternity, each year awards a silver cup to the winning sorority and another to the winning fraternity. If an organization wins three years in succession, the cup becomes its permanent possession. Last year the cups were won by Phi Sigma Kappa and Sigma Kappa.

Teams will consist of two speakers. Active members and pledges are eligible to participate. Constructive speeches will be ten minutes and rebuttals five.

Bar Dues Due

Yule Fisher, treasurer of the Student Bar Association, announces that second semester dues must be paid by March 25 if members expect to receive the third issue of the Law Review.

Glee Club Wins Second Honors In Competition

Harmon Praises Work of Raymond Robinson, Student Conductor

Receiving second place in the Eastern Intercollegiate Glee Club Contest held in Pittsburgh last Tuesday, the University Glee Club now ranks only below Penn State, who received first place, and Pomona colleges.

Pomona, a small California school, won the last intercollegiate national contest in 1932, but did not participate in this one due to the distance. Because of this, the contest this year is known as the Eastern divisional contest, and Pomona has been allowed to retain its national title.

Particularly noteworthy, according to Dr. Robert Harmon, director of the club, was the performance of Raymond Robinson, the first year student who conducted the club in the contest.

Other Participants

Other clubs participating were Wesleyan University, the winner of the New England division, Union College of New York, and Denison University of Ohio. Wesleyan and Union had already eliminated other contestants in their divisions, among which are Dartmouth and Columbia.

The Penn State and George Washington glee clubs broadcast over a national hook-up from station KDKA Wednesday morning from 11 to 11:30.

The contest was opened with all the contesting clubs singing "The Prayer of Thanksgiving" arranged by Krammer. Following that each club sang its choice song. The Colonials sang "Brahms' 'Swabian Folk Song'." "Down Among the Dead Men," sixteenth century English drinking song, arranged by Vaughn Williams, was the prize song chosen by lot from among three prepared to be sung by each club in contest. Each club then gave its school song.

Decision Announced

The other two prize songs, Victoria's "Ave Maria" and Orlando di Lasso's "Echo Song," were sung en masse by all the contesting clubs. The program was closed with the announcement of the decision by Osbourne McGonathy,

(Continued on Page 4)

Chittum, Long Cast In Women's Roles

Miho, Zlyman To Speak Japanese, Dutch Lines; Cast Complete

Amanda Chittum and Margaret Long were named for the two women's parts, and K. Miho and Jacob Zlyman were elected to speak the Japanese and Dutch lines, respectively, in the third episode of "The World Builder," student radio program. This completes the casting.

The drama, written by John Hazard, will deal with Commodore Matthew Perry's voyage to Japan in the nineteenth century in an effort to open that nation to American trade.

Prof. Douglas Bement, faculty adviser for the program, said last week that no definite date for the program has been selected.

A number of interesting sound effects will be used during the presentation, according to directors of the program. The sound of Perry's warships, the first steamships to cross the Pacific, will be made by a rotating paddle in a pan of water. A miniature train will furnish the sound of the locomotive set up in Japan by Commodore Perry.

Berry Simpson will act as student announcer for the program, but the N. B. C. announcer will continue as opening speaker and station announcer.

Engineers School Plans Anniversary Fete April 26, 27

Celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Engineering School is planned for April 26 and 27, according to Harold Sangster, publicity chairman for the Engineers Council.

Demonstration of experiments and engineering exhibits will be presented in the laboratories. Lectures and illustrations on the work of alumni will also be presented.

The annual Engineers Banquet on April 27 will close the anniversary celebration. The celebration, sponsored by the Engineers Council, is being planned by an engineers' day committee, composed of representatives from the Engineering School and the Engineers' alumni group.

Troubadour Tunes To Be Broadcast

Tunes from the Troubadour show, "Bride of the Incas," will go on the air next week.

Arthur Godfrey of "Sun Dial" fame has agreed to broadcast a piano recording as part of his daily "eye-opener" program over WJIS. Rudy Moeller, composer of the show's music, made the record today and the first broadcast is scheduled for tomorrow morning.

EDMUND ZIMAN

The University Hatchet

Member
Intercollegiate Newspaper Association of the Middle Atlantic States—National Scholastic Press Association.

Board of Editors
Editor: JAMES W. HALEY
Associate Editor: JOHN R. BUSICK
Associate Editor: ELEANOR A. HELLER

Senior Staff Members
David Apter, Nelson Bernhart, Ruth Brewer, William Cheatham, William Corley, Richard P. Croyke, Austin Cunningham, Charles Hallam, Bill Martin, Ethel Nelson, Fred Stevenson.

Business Staff
Business Manager: RICHARD C. MURPHY
Circulation Manager: Bernard Margolis

Published weekly from September to June, with one issue in July, by the students of The George Washington University, Washington, D. C.
Entered as second-class matter, October 27, 1911, at the Post Office at Washington, D. C., under Act of March 3, 1879. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized March 8, 1919.
Telephone National 6462 (University Exchange) then ask for "University Hatchet." After 7 p. m. and on Sunday call District 8170.
For last-minute news call Shepherd 3921.
Subscription, $2.50 a year.

Washington, D. C., Tuesday, March 19, 1935
Exitus Acta Probat

Stop Greek Defaulters!

THE interfraternity bowling competition this year was marked, we may say, by an unusually large number of forfeitures.

Chief offenders, according to Otto Schoenfelder, chairman of the Interfraternity Council athletic committee, were Sigma Nu and S. P. E. Each of these fraternities failed to show up for two of its five matches. One or two other chapters defaulted once.

This failure to meet scheduled opponents is unfair to the team forfeited to as well as to the other teams of the league.

It keeps the team taking by default from the experience of competition, an item which perhaps had something to do with the ultimate defeat of T. U. O., defending champions, which won nine of its fourteen victories this year by default.

Furthermore, failure to live up to the schedule works a hardship on the Interfraternity Council since the Council must reserve alleys for all the matches. While the Council this year did not have to pay for any of the matches which were not rolled, it is doubted if it will be able to get by so easily another year. Certainly the record of these defaults will adversely affect the Council's chances of making the most favorable arrangements for next year's competition.

Since bowling is a comparatively "simple" sport and requires but five men for a team, and no paraphernalia, we doubt if either Sigma Nu or S. P. E. would dare admit that it was unable to put a team together.

Sigma Nu is one of the strongest chapters on the campus, from the standpoint of number of members, and S. P. E. is far from the weakest.

If Sigma Mu Sigma and Theta Delta Chi, chapters whose membership is limited, are able to put out full-team teams in bowling as well as in other sports, it certainly looks like the larger chapters ought to be able to do the same.

The truth of the matter is that some chapters concentrate on one or two sports and let the rest go. They seem to be interested in grabbing a cup where they can get one and letting the rest of the program get along as best it can.

We do not censure such chapters for wanting to win cups. But we do censure them for failing to meet their schedules even though they may be mathematically out of the running. If all chapters indulged in this practice the whole interfraternity sports program would be destroyed.

It is too late to do anything about this year's program, but the Interfraternity Council should take immediate action to remedy this evil by requiring each chapter to post a monetary guarantee for the appearance of its representatives in future contests.

Pay Obligations

THREE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-ONE students contracted last semester to purchase a Co-op book which admitted them to major social functions on the campus. A fifteen dollar value was given them for only six dollars, payable in three installments.

Today thirty-four purchasers have forfeited their contracts—broken an agreement into which they entered on their own free accord. Although these students represent only ten percent of the total number of vendees, their failure to fulfill their agreement to complete the remaining payments will not go unnoticed.

Many of the thirty-four have already attended the functions given last semester, price of admittance to which far exceeded the first, or even second, payments on the Co-op. The Co-op Committee's decision to not admit the forfeited holders to further functions will cause the thirty-four students much embarrassment.

It is not too late for them to pay the amount they owe on their books. Such payment would admit them to all other functions, clear their names, save them from further embarrassment, and help the student activities which are partly financed through the Co-op fund.

Cooperation For Color

THE "big-time" football game must have "color"—lots of it. George Washington University now boasts a "big-time" team playing such formidable opponents as the Rose Bowl victors from Alabama, Rice Institute, and West Virginia, not forgetting rival Tulsa.

Much of the "color" of a football game must be supplied between the halves, and the University

Band has a lot to do with fulfilling the demand. A football contest would be incomplete if the stirring "Buff and Blue" and the solemn "Alma Mater" were not heard between periods.

The University Band was organized, and is now maintained, by proceeds from the annual all-University carnival—the Fiesta. Unlike many other important campus events, the Fiesta is an all-University cooperative venture with every student eligible to help put it over with ideas and constructive efforts.

If George Washington University is to realize its dream of a 100 piece band next fall to put over its biggest season ever, a successful Fiesta must be staged this year.

Glee Club Scores

AS expected and predicted, the Men's Glee Club gave a good account of itself in the competition in Pittsburgh last week.

While our singers did not win first place, they did the next best thing by taking second honors in a contest which brought together some of the Nation's best male collegiate singing groups.

We are pleased to again pay tribute to the members of the club and its director. The fact that we expected and predicted that they would be close up at the finish does not take away anything from the glory that is theirs.

JUST BETWEEN US

Deficit Averted, Ended; Fiesta Finds Features

Life of Glee Clubber Not So Soft! Read the Ads!

By VERA VOLE

FRESHMEN will frolic again this Friday, but according to the assurances of their president, they will pay the piper. No humiliating deficit is to mar this occasion.

One of the features of the evening is to be the presentation of orchids to the coeds whose personal solicitation for contributions resulted in the largest sums toward wiping out the debts incurred by the same affair two years ago. That this rite, pleasant though it may be, should be necessary, is a grim warning to those responsible for the business background of campus merry-making.

Although the method of raising funds was changed in the middle of the campaign, and the Deficit Committee did a public right-about-face in resorting to contributions from the campus at large, at least it is now able to report approximate success. By using the excellent idea, the suggestion of the senior class president, of employing the proceeds of check rooms, they will be able to wipe out the remaining ten dollars and rid us of the incubus forever.

Since achievement of the main object is in sight, the committee which undertook the task deserves congratulation, even if its administration of clearing the debt was almost so inefficient as to be reminiscent of the manner in which it was incurred.

MEMBERS of the psychology department should make a fortune at the 1935 Fiesta, because they should be able to determine where the rat will run. Among the original games of chance which are projected, we find plans for one which includes the antics of a live rat permitted to choose his own hole.

The research committee, now pouring over all aspects both of Spanish lore and general carnival history, is already producing some rare and lovely ideas. One of them presented the other day was that of having a glassblower weaving, of all things, usable table-cloths from his strange material.

The machine, its supporters declare, was a huge success at the Los Angeles carnival in 1904. That should give some idea of the exhaustive nature of their study.

But these fantastic aspects of the plans need not discourage you. There will actually be a Fiesta, because the infallible signs, huge charts of committee organization, elaborately planned, have already put in an appearance.

Our suggestion that the chairmen, directors, co-ordinators, and the like would be more glamorous if they were given Iberian titles, preferably military, is looked upon slightly askance by the officers.

ANY envy of the three day recess from classes that the Glee Club, carrying G. W. to new musical laurels at Pittsburgh, may have inspired, was definitely not deserved. Practically the entire period was spent in strenuous rehearsal, both of the numbers which carried them to second place in the nation-wide competition and of the ones which were presented by all the clubs en masse. A member also reports that a narrowly averted collision put them in peril of their lives on the way.

Social Events Register

Blank

Editor, Social Events Register, 2016 H st., n. w.

Please enter the following social event on the Social Events Register.

Organization	Function	Type	Date	Place

PAGE PROOFS

New Green Light Gets Turned Off

"Heaven's My Destination" Makes Hit

By BROOKE STEWART

LOYD DOUGLAS' new book, "Green Light" (Houghton Mifflin $2.50), a fine collection of platitudes, is the sticky story of the influence of Dean Harcourt, an all-wise clergyman, on a group of widely diversified people.

Douglas' philosophy of the on-ward-upward progress of humanity is clearly discernible through his characters, who have no individuality of their own, all echoing, without exception, the belief and convictions of their author.

Newell Paige, noble young doctor, sacrificing his career for his onetime ideal; Phyllis Dexter, bereaved at 22 of father and mother, but gallantly carrying on; Mme. Sonia, the disillusioned and desolate dressmaker; and many others, make up the procession that, with hearts bleeding, but faces bright, marches its cheerful way through this mediocre novel.

STILL on the subject of religious zealots, "Heaven's My Destination" (Harpers Bros. $2.50), the tale of an energetic young soul-saver in a soulless world, is the most recent literary contribution of Thornton Wilder. Author Wilder has also written best-seller "The Bridge of San Luis Rey" and "The Cabaletta."

George Brush, the exasperating hero of the piece, makes his way through the mid-west selling textbooks and preaching the Gospel to whoever will listen and others who would rather not. This occupation frequently lands him in jail.

For a young man of such high moral stature, Mr. Wilder's hero constantly involves himself with the evils of the world in efforts to reform them.

The reader's hope and expectation as he follows George Brush's evangelical progress is that circumstance or reason will bring him to his senses and make a flesh-and-blood human out of him. For a time, during an indisposition, this seems likely to happen; but recovery continues him on his saintly career.

Despite the novel's hilarious humor, its serious value cannot be ignored, for the troubles of Mr. Brush are the troubles of every man, and he attacks them fiercely and resolutely, if not altogether, to the reader's way of thinking, sanely.

Calendar

Today, March 19
7 p. m.
Drama Board, Bldg. 8, 7:30 p. m.
Spanish Club, Columbian House, 10 and 11, 8 p. m.
Mathematics Club, Y-27, 8 p. m.
Phi Sigma Rho, Bldg. 10, 8 p. m.
Cue and Curtain Club, Y-23, 8 p. m.
Tomorrow, March 20
Alpha Lambda Delta Tea, Columbian House, 4-5 p. m.
Troubadours Rehearsal, Corcoran Hall, 7 p. m.
Gate and Key Meeting, Acacia House, 8 p. m.
Speakers Congress, Corcoran Hall, 8 p. m.
Alpha Kappa Psi, Columbian House, 21, 8 p. m.
Cue and Curtain Tryouts, Corcoran 23 and 24, 8 p. m.
German Club, Columbian House, 10 and 11, 8:30 p. m.
Thursday, March 21
Troubadours Rehearsal, Corcoran Hall, 7 p. m.
Center Party, Jenners, 7 p. m.
Phi Eta Sigma Banquet, Columbian House, 7 p. m.
Christian Science Club, Columbian House, 8 p. m.
Cue and Curtain Tryouts, Corcoran 23 and 24.
Newman Club, Columbian House 10 and 11, 8:30 p. m.
Friday, March 22
Symphony Club Tea, Columbian House 10 and 11, 4-5 p. m.

Danzansky Takes Cue and Curtain Between Teeth Again

By Austin Cunningham

JOE DANZANSKY took another Cue and Curtain production between his teeth and ran away with it last week when our all-star dramatic troupe played before a full house on Friday night and a not so full house the night before.

Not that he wasn't ably aided and abetted by some eleven other members of the cream of our local dramatic crop, but simply because "Goodbye Again" happens to be a one man play, and because last week Danzansky was that one man.

The whole action took place in a hotel bedroom and, fortunately enough, Danzansky spent most of the time enthroned on the bed. The word fortunately is used because Cue and Curtain addicts have often complained of the dizzy spells brought on by having to follow Danzansky around and around the stage during past performances. This business of tying the gentle-

Social Events REGISTER

Thursday, March 21
Phi Mu Dance, Hotel LaFayette, Bldg. 10, 8 p. m.
Friday, March 22
Fresh Frolic, Kennedy-Warren, Subscription (Closed Date).
Saturday, March 23
Delta Tau Delta Dance, Subscription, Hamilton Hotel.
Phi Sigma Kappa Formal Dance, Bldg. 10, 8 p. m.
Sigma Alpha Epsilon Dance, House, Closed.
Sigma Mu Sigma Radio Dance, House.
Sigma Phi Epsilon Dance, House, Bldg. 10, 8 p. m.
Sunday, March 24
Kappa Sigma Radio Dance, House.
Tuesday, March 26
Troubadours, "Bride of the Inca", Roosevelt High School, Subscription (Closed Date).
Wednesday, March 27
Troubadours, "Bride of the Inca", Roosevelt High School, Subscription (Closed Date).
Thursday, March 28
Troubadours, "Bride of the Inca", Roosevelt High School, Subscription (Closed Date).
Friday, March 30
Phi Sigma Kappa Dance, House, Bldg. 10, 8 p. m.
Theta Upsilon Omega Dance, House, Bldg. 10, 8 p. m.
Tuesday, April 2
Interfraternity Pledge Council Party, Shoreham Hotel, Closed.
Friday, April 5
Panhellenic Prom, Willard Hotel.
Friday, April 12
Tri-Fraternity Dance: Acacia, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Nu, Closed.
Thursday, May 2
Fiesta (Closed Date).
Friday, May 3
Fiesta (Closed Date).
Saturday, May 4
Fiesta (Closed Date).
Friday, May 10
Chemistry Show, Corcoran Hall.
Troubadours Rehearsal, Corcoran Hall, 7 p. m.
Fraternity-Sorority Scholarship Committee, Trustees Room, 7:30 p. m.
International Students' Society Business Meeting, Columbian House 10 and 11, 8 p. m.
Dr. Gamow's Lecture on "Artificial Transformation of Elements", Corcoran 39, 8:15 p. m.
Saturday, March 23
Troubadours Rehearsal, Roosevelt High School, 1 p. m.
Sunday, March 24
Library Science, Columbian House, 10 and 11, 3 p. m.
Monday, March 25
Luther Club Hike, leave Columbian House, 6 a. m.
Troubadours Rehearsal, Roosevelt High School, 7 p. m.
Lecture, Hispanic-American Series, Corcoran Hall, 8:15 p. m.

AFTER-BEATS

Chamber Group Meets Success

Kindler Conducts in Year's Finest

By WILLIAM CORLEY

Concert by a Chamber Orchestra formed from the National Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Hans Kindler, Viola Mitchell, soloist, Sunday, March 17, in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium. Program, I Call on Thee Lord (Bach); Symphony No. 8 in C (C. P. E. Bach); Concerto for Violin and Orchestra (Mozart); Suite (Purcell); Concerto for Five Instruments (Respighi). The concert was given under the auspices of Mrs. Elisabeth Sprague Coolidge.

IN a program consisting of three parts, preclassical music to, strangely enough, two parts ultra-modern, Dr. Hans Kindler conducted a concert by a chamber orchestra, formed from the National Symphony, in some of the finest work heard this season.

It opened with the choral prelude of Johann Sebastian Bach, I Call on Thee Lord, a composition remarkable for serenity and simplicity, and one intelligently played.

The finest number, in my opinion, however, was the last, the Respighi concerto for Five Instruments and Orchestra (violin, piano, oboe, trumpet, bass). Like much of modern music it was difficult of interpretive understanding. It was a work never before played here, yet it is music that bears the mark of greatness, and was played too in the great manner. Yet wonderful as this was it met a close second in the Purcell Suite. The music of Purcell, the man who marked the climax of an English school of music which was the most promising of its day, was admirably conducted by Kindler. Many, including myself, left the concert with the feeling that it is one of the finest things he has ever done.

The symphony No. 8 in C of Carl Phillip Emanuel Bach was well performed and contained the usual charm and freshness of early music. Of the Malipiero Concerto for violin and orchestra I can say that just the opposite was true. It contained the usual, involved, complicated dryness characteristic of some forms of modern music. Viola Mitchell was courageous in attacking a work of that difficulty, and she did a good job of it, yet I do not feel that even under the circumstances of a lack of understanding and sympathy with music of this type upon my part would be sufficient by any stretch of the imagination to place it equal to either the Purcell or the Respighi.

BOOKS

PEARLMAN

—1711 G—

Did You Know That ---

By MARY E. KUNNA

THE department of Home Economics was kept busy for two full weeks devising a menu for Dr. Paul Bartsch's West Indian Zoological expedition in the summer of 1930. Members of the department figured out the food necessary for the four months' cruise, and planned the daily menus.

of history, is considered an authority on Jeremy Bentham, the great exponent of Utilitarianism, and has published the book "The Grand Social Enterprise" on Bentham and his theories.

The LOTUS
1416 and NEW YORK AVE. N. W.
Today
EXOTIC REVUE
CAST OF 16 STARS
3 TIMES DAILY

Cartwright's 8 DEBS
Charles and Select
Cooper & Madras
Rhythm Team
2 Specialty Dancers
No Cover Charge
All Refreshments and Tip Included

IN EARLY AMERICA WE READ OF THE PURITANS AND CAPTAIN MILES STANDISH WHO... ETC... ETC...

MILES WAS BASHFUL SO HE SENT HIS FRIEND JOHN ALDEN TO PROPOSE TO THE BEAUTIFUL PRISCILLA. PRISCILLA WAS THAT WAY ABOUT JOHN.

ARCHLY THE MAIDEN SMILED AND WITH EYES OVER LAUGHTER SAID TREMULOUS VOICE "WHY DON'T YOU SPEAK FOR YOURSELF, JOHN?"

THE TOBACCO THAT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF BECAUSE OF ITS MILDNESS, MELLOWNESS, AND COOLNESS IS PRINCE ALBERT. WHAT FLAVOR M-M-M-M

Top-quality tobacco is used in P.A.
It is crisp cut.
Prince Albert is mild-mellow and so cool!
Two ounces in every tin.
Special process takes out all "bite."
Largest selling pipe tobacco.

PRINCE ALBERT
the national joy smoke!

Dahlia Lewis Is Individual Rifle Victor

Livingston Wins Second; Watson, Hobart and Staunton Also Place

Dahlia Lewis is the winner of the women's individual rifle squad match with a score of 286 out of 300. Eleanor Livingston placed second with a score of 286, too, but the tie was broken in accordance with N. R. A. rules and Eleanor was outranked. Carolyn Watson, Carol Hobart, and Julia Staunton placed, third, fourth, and fifth, respectively.

A gold medal will be presented to Dahlia at the winter banquet of the W. A. A. The award is made annually by the association. Mary Louise Yauch, captain of the varsity, was the winner of the medal the year before last. Ruth Brewer, member of the varsity, was the winner last year.

The five girls who placed in the match all made their class teams. They have been the five high scorers of the squad during the year.

Three class teams have been formed from the members of the squad. The junior-senior team is composed of Julia Staunton, captain, Dora Ramirez De Arellano, Eleanor Felger, Jane Harrison, Janie McSwain, and Kathleen Polk. Members of the sophomore team are Eleanor Livingston, captain, Kathleen Bulow, Cecilia Couch, Mary Fulham, Julia Metcalf, and Ann Pace. The freshman team is composed of Dahlia Lewis, captain, Aileen Hathorn, Elizabeth Hewins, Carol Hobart, Lois Kingsberry, and Carolyn Watson. The class matches are in the second week of competition.

Women Named As Delegates

Ruth Critchfield, Barbara Feiker, Peggy Graves, and Frances Thompson have been appointed by the W. A. A. to represent the University at the southeastern convention of the W. A. A., which will be held at the North Carolina State Teachers College, in Greensborough, March 21-23.

The American Federation of College Women is sponsoring this meeting and a number of colleges will participate. The representatives from G. W. will discuss various financial problems. Miss Helen Lawrence, physical education instructor, will accompany the delegates.

Ferdinand of Vienna

just returned from the International Beauty Show Owners' Convention in New York, suggest your coiffure for the Freshman Frolic. Take advantage of the discount for G. W. girls.

CHARM SHOP
1317 F Street Nat. 1114
Fourth Floor American Bldg.

Philipsborn

Suit Frocks for Spring

Paper Taffeta is the newest wrinkle on this Beau Brummel frock of sheer. $13.95

Freshmen Class Holds Annual Frolic Friday; Surprise Acts Planned

Lead Prom

HOOD HOOVER

SUZANNE MARTIN

Who will lead the Grand March of the Freshman Frolic Friday night with the president and social chairman of the dance.

Hood Hoover and Suzanne Martin Will Lead Grand March

Benson's Orchestra To Feature Girls' Trio; Co-ops Can Be Used

One of the seven big social events of the year will be realized Friday night when the Freshmen "Frolic" at the Kennedy-Warren from 10 until 1 gets underway.

Hood Hoover, escorted by Lewis Lloyd, president of the class, and Suzanne Martin, accompanied by William Rochelle, social chairman, of the dance, will lead the Grand March.

Several surprise attractions have been planned for the occasion, according to Bob Bernstein, program chairman. Jack Benson's orchestra, Fiesta orchestra contest winner last spring, has been selected to play. A girls' singing trio will be featured.

Chairman Rochelle announces that freshmen will be permitted to use their co-op books, but states that they must be exchanged for tickets before Friday night at the Student Council office in Building O.

President Lloyd appointed the following chairmen to assist in the arrangements for the dance: Garth Edwards, publicity; Helen Leane, decorations; Hood Hoover, tickets; and Bob Bernstein, program. Members of the various committees are Eleanor Akin, Nancy Ansell, Carlton Edwards, Judie Knapp, Mary Kunna, John Nash, Roger Power, Sue Slater, Vernon Stehman, and Kim Wesse.

Chaperones for the frolic are Prof. and Mrs. Robert Thorndike, Rep. and Mrs. Wesley Lloyd, and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Rochelle. Tickets are on sale at $1.65 a couple and $1.10 stag. They may be obtained from any member of the committee.

Tea for Miss Miller.
The Symphony Club will give a tea in honor of Mariemma Miller, winner of the National Symphony Orchestra Association Poster contest Friday from 4 to 5 o'clock in Columbian House.

Just A Line to Annabelle

The Last Few Weeks Have Been Crammed With All Sorts of Exciting Events in G. W. Society. One of the Most Novel Parties was the Sigma Nu "Warehouse Ball."

DEAR ANNABELLE:
The last few weeks have just been crammed with exciting events. Everyone seems to be doing and planning things. You really can't imagine what you are missing by not being here. Just to make you envious, let me tell you what has been happening despite your absence.

One of the highlights of the social year in the Med School was the dance sponsored by Lambda Phi Mu at Wardman March 8. Artie Hoyle provided the music. On March 9, Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Chi, and Phi Chi all held dances at their respective houses. On the same day the Pi Phi pledges were entertained by their alumnae at a "get-acquainted" luncheon.

Dr. Carl Wells of the sociology department was guest of honor at an Alpha Delta Theta dinner March 7.

The Admiral was the scene of a luncheon March 2 given by Delta Zeta in honor of Mrs. J. Clinton Laucks, province inspector.

Then on March 14 and 15 came Cue and Curtin's smash hit, "Goodbye Again". That S. R. O. sign sure looked good the second night. After Friday night's performance Karl Gay and Floyd Sparks gave a swell party for members of the organization and their dates. You'd have loved it. Too bad you missed the Kappa rummage sale the day before. And the Zetas gave one Friday, too.

Perhaps the most interesting party recently was the Sigma Nu "Warehouse Ball" on March 16. Entrance to the house was up a ladder and through a second story window. Baggies, boxes, crates, and keys filled the room. Guests were in tacky costumes. The K. A. S. also had a dance at which one individual squirted water into a megaphone held to the mouth of crooner Bill Bell. Henry Stewart's Smart Set Orchestra supplied the music. Also of importance were the Theta Tau installation and the Kappa initiation banquet.

The alumni chapter of S. P. E. held a reception March 17 in honor of William L. Phillips, their grand secretary.

Yours,
RUTHIE.

Women's Calendar

Today
Dance Recital Western Presbyterian Church, 8:15 p. m.
Wednesday, March 20
11 a. m.—Dr. Morris Fishbein address before faculty and students of Medical school.
12 a. m.—Luncheon at Cosmos Club for Dr. Fishbein.
Thursday
Fins Club meeting and pledging, Building T, noon.
Senior Swimming Club, Y. W. C. A., at 4:00 p. m.
Fencing Club meeting, Western Presbyterian Church, 7 p. m.
Friday
Junior Swimming Club, Y. W. C. A., 1:00 p. m.
Fencing Club Meeting, Western Presbyterian Church, 7 p. m.
Saturday
Bridge Tournament, Pi Phi Rooms, 2 p. m.
Monday
W. A. A. Board, Building T, 12:30 p. m.

Panhel Council To Award Four Cups At Prom

Cups To Be Presented To Intramural and Bridge Winners

The Panhellenic Council is planning to initiate a new custom at the Prom April 5, at the Willard Hotel—one unprecedented in all past proms. Cups will be presented to the winners of the intramural contests in bowling, volleyball, and ping-pong. The volley ball contest was won by Phi Mu, and the ping-pong tournament by Sigma Kappa.

A cup will also be awarded to the winner of the Panhellenic Bridge Tournament. In addition to this innovation, the music will be furnished by Isham Jones, world-famous song composer and orchestra leader.

Jones, originally from Ohio, started his musical career in Chicago. He organized a band of his own and accepted small engagements in and around the city until eventually he secured booking at the famous College Inn. After this he played at some of the country's brightest spots, including the Ambassador in Atlantic City and the Hollywood Restaurant in New York. Since the spring of 1932 he has been featured over the Columbia Network in the "Big Show" with Gertrude Niesen, and the Chevrolet programs.

He wrote "Soldiers of the Sea" at the beginning of his career and followed it by "You're in the Army Now". He also appeared in "Convention Girl", a motion picture made in Atlantic City.

Panhel Bridge Tourney In Finals This Week

Phi Mu, Alpha Delta Pi, and Sigma Kappa will play the finals Saturday in the Panhellenic Bridge Tournament in the Pi Beta Phi rooms, according to Ruth McNary, manager.

Lotus Offering the Best
The Lotus Restaurant is weekly bringing the best that New York's Great White Way has to offer. Starring this week is Charles and Celeste, agile adagio dancers, in "The Blue Danube".

A MUSICAL COMEDY "BRIDE OF THE INCAS"

By The Troubadours

The Roosevelt Auditorium MARCH 26, 27, 28

Tickets on Sale, 1st Floor, Bldg. S

W. A. A. Features Style Show, Awards at Banquet April 2

Athletic awards for the winter sports season will be made at the annual winter banquet of the Women's Athletic Association, to be held at the All State Hotel, Tuesday, April 2, at 7:30 p. m.

Officers elected last week will be installed at the banquet, and one of the special features of the program will be a style show, under the direction of Peggy Graves. Members of the W. A. A. will act as models.

Feiker Places First In Fencing Tournament

Barbara Feiker, Fencing Club president, won the first annual fencing tournament which has been in progress for the past three weeks. The contest was a round robin affair in which all club members participated.

Jean McGregor placed second, rising from third place which she held at the end of the first week. Inge Van Lewinski and Tempa Marshall placed third and fourth, respectively.

The women gave the fencing club's only exhibition of the season at the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday.

Fins To Pledge Five At Meeting Thursday

Dorothy Buck, Jacqueline Churchill, Marcia Lamb, Carolyn McMillen, and Betty Moses will be pledged by Fins, the swimming club, at a meeting at 12 noon Thursday in Building T. These women passed the required tests when the second semester tryouts were held.

it hits

the mark!

it's cool...
it's good looking
it's becoming...
what?...
Front-Tone
(a lightweight cotton yarn)
at the

Tlaga Yarn Shop

401 Kresge Bldg.
G Street at 11th

G. W. Shooters Beat Michigan Easily Defeats Big Ten Team for Season's Third Straight Victory

In the third straight win of the season the George Washington women's rifle team was victorious over the University of Michigan with a score of 491 to 480.

The five high scores for the match were Maxine Farley, 99; Lorraine Lincoln, 99; Mary Spelman, 98; Mary Louise Yauch, 98; and Ruth Brewer, 87.

No results have as yet been returned for the matches with Northwestern University and Carnegie Institute of Technology.

"Every Lassic Has Her Plaidie"

or maybe a tweed knit coat for summer. Aberdeen Twist is only one of the many yarns Dorothy Colhoun has for your sum-coat. If you prefer, there is alpaca, coating or knitting worsted.

DOROTHY COLHOUN'S KNITTING NOOK
909 18th Street

L. FRANK CO.

The Store for Youthful Fashions
F St. at 12th N.W. NATIONAL 5769

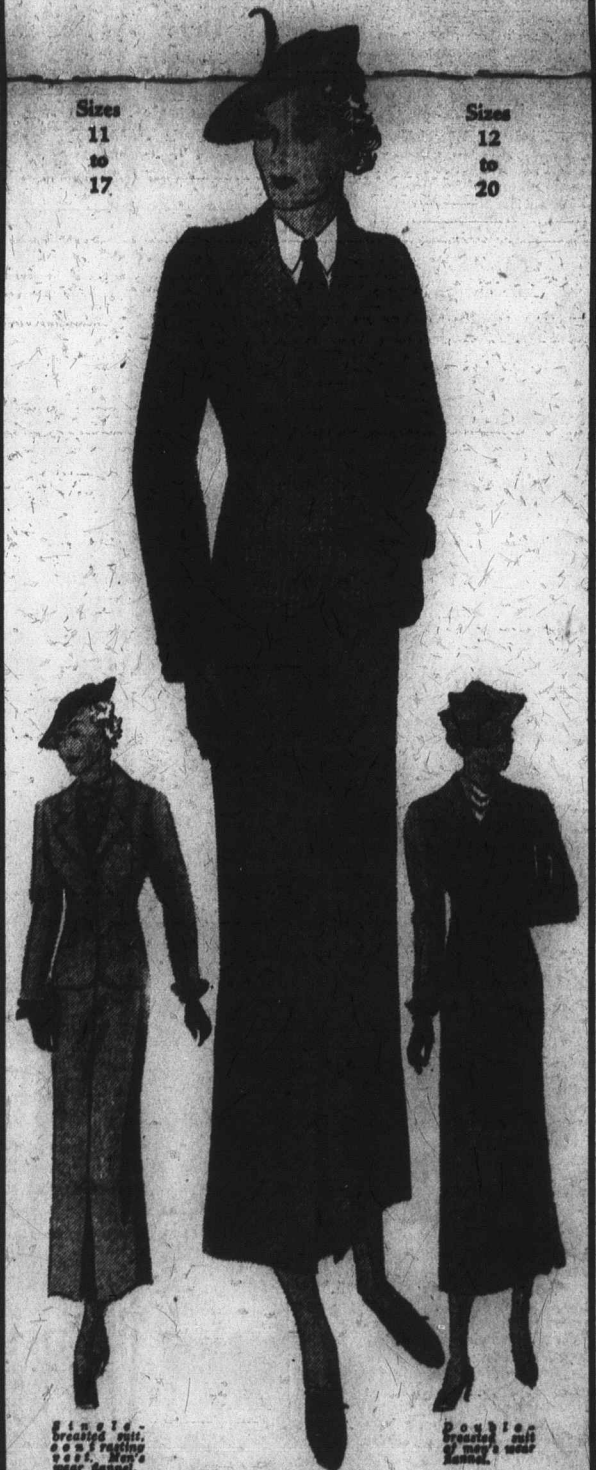

Featuring

"Mannish Suits" Man Tailored

Men's Wear Fabrics Men's Wear Linings

Browns Greys $16.95 Blues Tans

Sizes 11 to 17 Sizes 12 to 20

Single-breasted suit, checked skirt, plain shirt.

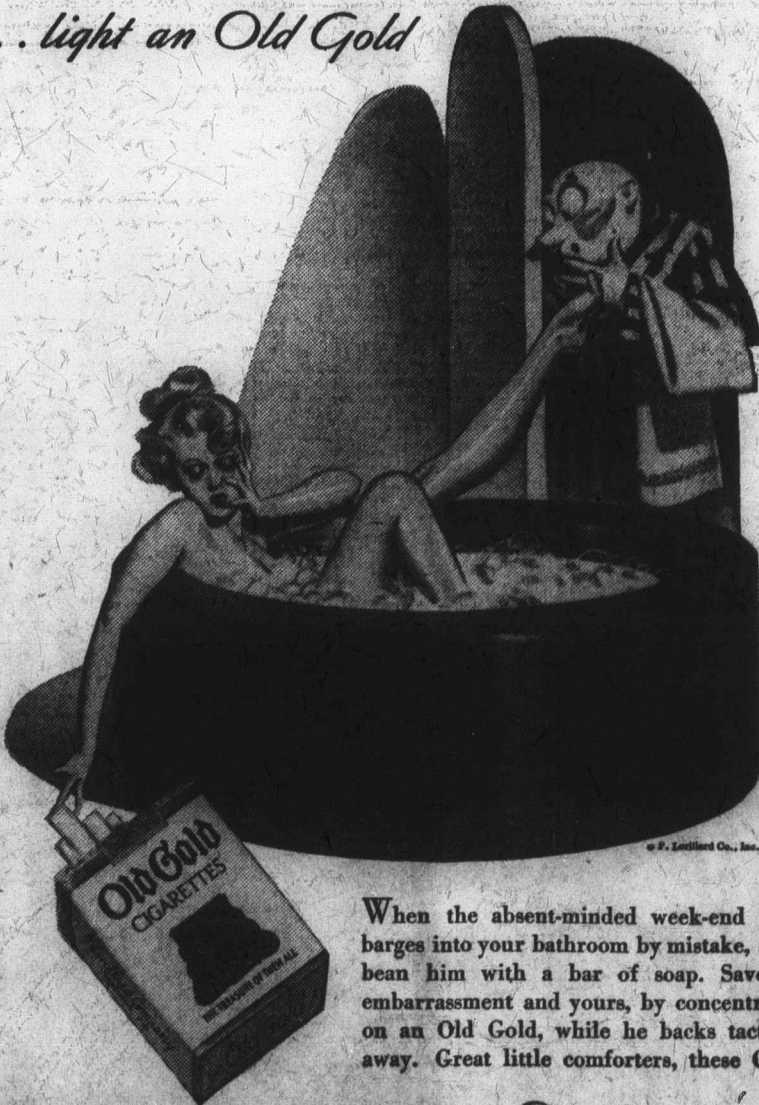

Single-breasted suit, checked skirt, plain shirt.

SUIT SHOP

4th FLOOR

Dished by a Dilemma?

... light an Old Gold

When the absent-minded week-end guest barges into your bathroom by mistake, don't bean him with a bar of soap. Save his embarrassment and yours, by concentrating on an Old Gold, while he backs tactfully away. Great little comforters, these O. Gal

AT TRYING TIMES.... TRY A Smooth OLD GOLD

Symphony Asking For Contributions To Year's Fund

Protsman Heads Solicitation Committee; Jaeger Vice Chairman

Students wishing to aid in the campaign to raise $100,000 for the National Symphony Orchestra should leave their contributions at the cashier's office, Building G, between March 15 and 25.

A committee composed of Merle I. Protsman, associate professor of romance languages, as chairman; and W. Hayes Jaeger, Dewey professor of public speaking, as vice chairman, has been formed to assist in the solicitation of funds.

The fundamental aims of the campaign are to place the members of the orchestra on a weekly basis of pay so as to give them a living wage and make possible regular practice and rehearsal periods, thereby improving the quality of their productions; to permit more concerts in Constitution Hall and make available a large number of low-priced seats for every concert; to provide more children's concerts, attendance at which now averages over 2000; and to provide a number of summer concerts.

University students have more than a passing interest in the orchestra in that it has given a concert at one commencement; Dr. Hans Kindler, director, was awarded an honorary degree; President Marvin has spoken over the radio in behalf of the orchestra; Dean Doyle is joint chairman of the educational group of the campaign committee; and a number of George Washington students are among the musicians who compose the orchestra.

Moreover, the proximity of the University to Constitution Hall and the Lincoln Memorial, where winter and summer concerts are held, makes the orchestra's concerts readily available to the student body.

Glee Club Wins Second Honors

(Continued from Page 1)
New York music editor and publisher, and chairman of the committee of judges, followed by the singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner" by all present.

The other two judges on the committee were M. Claude Rosenberg and Ralph G. Winslow. The contestants were rated on five qualities: tone, pitch, enunciation, ensemble, and interpretation. The winners, Penn State, had 246 out of a possible 300. George Washington made 231 points. The prize song carried a weight of 60 per cent while the choice song rated 40. At the last moment it was announced that the school song would not be counted in the judging.

Luncheon Given

The afternoon of the contest all the clubs attended a luncheon at the William Penn Hotel given by the Eastern Music Supervisors Conference of whose convention the Intercollegiate Music Council Glee Contest was a feature. Miss Laura Bryant, president of the conference, acted as hostess at the luncheon. She was aided by Mrs. Harriet Pickernell, executive secretary of the National Intercollegiate Music Council.

The members of the G. W. Glee Club who took part in the contest, together with alternates, were:

Student conductor, Raymond B. Robinson.
First tenors, Joseph F. Allen, W. G. Britt, Everett C. Cooper, Jack Embrey, Walter J. Helson, Tom F. McGough, Tom L. Scott, H. Alton Swiger. Alternates, Richard Coe, Wayne J. Hansen. Second tenors, Frank C. Daniel Jr., Andrew F. Freeman, Austin P. Gattis, Fred A. Jilson, Melvin J. Law, John L. Palmer, Albert J. Powers. Alternates, Andrew M. Knappen, Roland B. Spencer.

First basses, Daniel J. Andersen, Evan C. Brown, Tom H. Enzor, Benedict J. Genua, Paul LaPrade, James H. Sibbet, Carleton F. Smith. Alternates, Benjamin F. Boese, Harold Breithaupt. Second basses, Edmund Browning, Garth Edwards, Charles E. Hughes Jr., Charles A. McCoy, Allan Warfield, Evert Warren, John R. Wilson Jr. Alternates, William H. Hollis, Allen Swayze.

Ziman To Direct Fiesta Vaudeville

(Continued from Page 1)
ville, including specialties, blackouts, dancing, and singing. Vaudeville shows will be presented three times daily each of the three days of the Fiesta, May 2, 3, and 4. A different set of acts will be presented each evening.

Best Honored

A faculty committee to be named later will pick the best acts presented each night. The acts so picked will play at a special midnight show May 3. The actors who present the best performance at this special show will be presented with a silver cup.

Ziman did the music for several of the productions of the famous Provincetown Playhouse, and has also written radio sketches, short stories, and music of all types. He has directed semi-professional groups, and has even tried his hand at movie criticism for "Opinion". Before coming to George Washington, Ziman took part in several of the musical shows at Cornell University.

Chemistry Groups Announce "Show"

Alpha-Chi Sigma fraternity and Chi Sigma Gamma sorority have completed plans for a Chemistry Show to be given in Corcoran Hall on Friday, May 19.

The program will include a popular talk on chemistry, a demonstration of fire experiments, one of color, pseudo synthesis, liquid air, and two groups of miscellaneous experiments.

In addition, there are to be exhibits such as a bubble cap still, a vacuum still, a density tower, a spectroscopic exhibit, and an alchemical laboratory.

War Strike Urged On G. W. Campus

Vassar, Harvard, Minnesota, California Participated Last Year

An attempt is being made this year to extend to the G. W. campus a "strike against war" movement which last year called students from their classrooms in all sections of the country in protest against war and preparation for war. The date set this year is 11 a. m. Friday, April 12.

Last year, on April 12, 25,000 students left their classrooms at Vassar, Harvard, Minnesota, California, and other universities, and this year the national strike committee expects greatly increased numbers to voice their objection to war in a world-wide strike.

This year the movement is being backed by The National Council of Methodist Youth, The American Youth Congress, The Inter-Seminary Movement, The Student League for Industrial Democracy, and the National Student League.

Local strike committees have been set up at American U. and Howard U., as well as at G. W.

Director To Pick Fiesta Associates

Students Should Apply This Week for 200 Positions Open

Appointment of the four associate directors of the 1935 Fiesta will be made the latter part of this week, Sam Futrovsky, director, announced last night.

More than 200 positions in the various divisions of the organization are open to students of the University. Students who are interested in trying out for any position should apply to the director in the Student Council office, second floor of Building O, on week days from two to six p. m. Applications may be made in person or in writing.

Divided in 6 Parts

Grouped in six general divisions, the Fiesta organization will include:

Public relations covering campus, city, and radio publicity; an office staff of secretaries, accountants, and a record division; a concession division which will include all concessions and exhibits except the large individual units; a radio division controlling the public address system on the Fiesta grounds;

An athletic division governing all sports features; an art section which will do design work, advertising, and construction; a property division which will collaborate in designing exhibits, assist in construction, and provide a group of "minute-men" for fast repair work; a program staff which will issue the official Fiesta program;

The music section which will cover pep bands and dancing; a research committee whose business it will be to provide practical ideas for the Fiesta; a free prize division to provide concession and exhibit prizes; a printing staff to control printing projects; and a vaudeville division to direct the University Fiesta vaudeville.

Trustees Honor John Joy Edson

Board Member, Class of 1868, Feted After 29 Years of Service

Members of the Board of Trustees honored John Joy Edson, member of the Board for 29 years, with a luncheon last Thursday at 1:30 in the board room of the Administration Office.

Mr. Edson, now in his ninetieth year, is still active in business and civic life of Washington. He attended the University, graduating in 1868 with the degree of Bachelor of Laws. After his admission to the District Bar in 1869 he engaged in the practice of patent law for several years. At present he is president of the Equitable Building Association, which he organized in 1879, and chairman of the Board of the Washington Loan and Trust Company.

April 1 Deadline For Story Entries

April 1 is the last date for entries in the intercollegiate short story contest conducted by the magazine, "Story," according to Professor Bement, associate professor of English.

Professor Bement will select the two best stories submitted by George Washington students. They will later be entered in a national contest. A prize of $100 will be given as first prize and $50 will go to the second place winner. Other high ranking stories in the contest may be published.

All entrants should mail or take their stories to Professor Bement's office in M-32, before 6 p. m. on April 1. The stories should range from 1500 to 6000 words. No entry will be returned unless accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"Talking Books" To Be Explained

Miss Miriam H. Morris, member of the "Talking Book" committee of Washington, will demonstrate "Talking Books" before the class in Library Administration of the Division of Library Science Monday, Miss Elizabeth A. Lathrop, assistant professor, announced yesterday.

Miss Morris will explain and demonstrate the new machine in K-21 at 9:10. Any students of faculty members interested are invited to hear the lecture.

This special lecture is being given in conjunction with the study of library services to the blind, in hospitals, and to other special groups.

82 Percent Pass D. C. Bar Exam

(Continued from Page 1)

nedy, William W. Keyt, Vernon W. Knosher, David R. Kolner, Wains M. Kolehmainen, Donald E. Lane, Donald E. Lee, Katherine Markwell, Richard D. Mason, Stanley W. Miller, Howard N. Moore, Gordon A. Nicholson, William T. O'Brien, John B. Osborne, Richard A. Parsons, Lynn C. Paulson, George M. Paulus, Kenneth R. Popham, George W. Porter, Karl M. Richards, Scott G. Rigby, Robert C. Riordan, Frank B. Russell, Arthur J. Schofer, Arthur Shapiro, Leo Simon, Floyd Sittion, Loch Shumaker, Bertha M. Smith, C. E. Smoot, R. Dale Snow, Charles A. Sweeney and F. W. Turnbull.

STANDARD ENGRAVING CO., INC.
Photo-Engraver
Line, Half-tone, and Color Work
PRINCETON BLDG., WASHINGTON, D. C.

Ragatz To Speak At London Meet

Work in Colonial History Merits Invitation To Conference

Dr. Lowell J. Ragatz, executive officer of the history department, has accepted an invitation to speak before the International Conference of Colonial Studies in London during the summer of 1935.

The invitation came as a result of several lectures on "Colonial History" which Dr. Ragatz delivered last year while on sabbatical leave. Notable among these were his six addresses before the Paris Colonial Society and his four lectures in England.

A specialist in Colonial History, Dr. Ragatz has placed particular emphasis on the study of the Caribbean area, and probably will take as subject matter for his lectures the history of colonization in that region.

The conference is held every five years for the benefit of students and specialists in the history of European colonial expansion. It last convened in Paris in 1931, under the auspices of the French Colonial Exposition.

You will be satisfied with our food and prices. Try us breakfast ready for you at 7 A. M. to 2, and a very attractive Dinner 4:30 to 7:45. We also serve breakfast and luncheon at our Cafeteria. 1521 K Street N. W.

JENNER'S CAFETERIA
1519 G

Faculty Members Address Society

The Smith-Reed-Russell Honor Medical Society will hear papers by Dr. Paul F. Dickens and Dr. Vincent Du Vigneaud of the medical school faculty Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the medical school library.

The subject of both doctors' papers will be "Uremia." Angelo May Jr., a sophomore, will give a paper on the history of uremia. Alfred Stanton's paper will present the pathological physiology and chemical phases of uremia. The chemical aspect of uremia will be discussed by Richard Sullivan, senior. A. Henry Steinberg will read a paper on the treatment of this disease.

A Stay-at-Home

Just an old-fashioned girl laboriously penning her assignments. Her sorority sister is out on a date. She did her work in a jiffy on an Underwood. For a demonstration of quick means of doing time-taking tasks, call District 1630.

UNDERWOOD
Elliott-Fisher Co.
Homer Bldg., 13th & F

....I'm the welcome third—

I'm your best friend

You find me the welcome third. I am always the same, always mild, mellow, fine-flavored, friendly to your throat. I am made of center leaves, only. Those small, sticky top leaves are sharp and bitter. Sand and grit destroy the flavor of the bottom leaves. But the choice center leaves grow to mellow ripeness, preserving every bit of fragrant tobacco flavor. I am made from these fragrant, expensive center leaves. I do not irritate your throat. This gives me the right to sign myself "Your best friend."

I am your Lucky Strike

LUCKIES USE ONLY CENTER LEAVES . . . CENTER LEAVES GIVE YOU THE BEST SMOKE

They Taste Better

Copyright 1935, The American Tobacco Company.

sport axe..

By John Busick

THIS new basketball and backfield coach who came into our midst unheralded last week and started for home last night with the possibility of having a good deal to do with athletic history at G. W., will probably give the fans a real treat next fall in the way of offensive football.

"I like wide open football," said Reinhart yesterday, his bluish gray eyes twinkling as he talked about his years at Oregon. "The wider open, the better. Of course it makes a more interesting game to watch and gives everybody a real treat, but we can't do away with the power completely. Each year the trend is toward opening the game up more and I'm all for it."

Bill's Oregon backfields, particularly the one of year before last, certainly speak well for his success in this style of attack. He favors the punt formation which Pixlee hasn't used much, but it can be easily worked into "Possum" Jim's pet plays.

ONE couldn't help liking instantly this boyish-like man whose quiet personality has won him more than a score of friends in the coaching fraternity out on the Coast. He's of medium build, hasn't any tendencies toward the portliness that marks so many coaches, speaks of his experiences modestly, yet convincingly.

At present he's very prone to talk about his baseball prospects for this season, since baseball is entering the picture now.

"With all the experienced material we have coming back this spring, I think we'll have a great team," he says. And then, like all coaches, he modifies his statements when they sound too optimistic. "Well, anyway, we'll be in there from the start," he concludes. "I felt like a small wad would be a good risk on his outfit."

PERHAPS the greatest believer in Reinhart, next to Pixlee, is "Doc" Spears, formerly of Minnesota and Oregon, now at Wisconsin. When he heard that there was a possibility of Reinhart coming here, he wired Pixlee immediately.

"Bill Reinhart is a wonderful fellow but one of the best basketball coaches in the country," said Spears' wire.

And I believe him, too.

Tankmen Defend D.C.A.A.U. Crown

Shoreham, Central High and Men's Y Present Threats To Title

In an attempt to capture the D. C. A. A. U. swimming title for the third straight time, the Buff and Blue tankmen make their final splash of the season in the Shoreham pool, Friday and Saturday nights.

Captain Dyer Ghormley, outstanding George Washington point-getter and holder of the Eastern Intercollegiate breast stroke crown, is entered in the 220-yard breast stroke, the 50-yard free style, and the two relays. Ghormley is defending champion in the breast stroke.

The second high scorer on the team, Beverly Carter, will swim the 100, 220, and the relays. Carter's favorite event, the 440, is not scheduled on the card.

Other Colonial entrants are Vonder Bruegge in the 50, 100, and free style relay; Moynaux in the 50; Dorman in the 100; Catchings in the 220; Vartia in the 50 and free style relay; and Hain in the 100-yard back stroke and medley relay.

Any one of three teams may lift the crown held by the Buff and Blue. They are the Men's Y, Central High School, or the Shoreham Club.

Central High, which Saturday night won the South Atlantic schoolboy championship, will enter the South Atlantic champ, Jordan, in the 220 and Goldberg in the dashes.

Starring for the "Y" will be Boggs in the 220, who earlier in the season outdistanced Carter, Marmion in the backstroke, and Moncure in the breast stroke.

The Shoreham Club will present Groff, D. C. record holder in the 50 and 100 and Broadbuss and Knight in the high dive.

The deciding margin will lie in the two relays, the 220-yard free style and 300-yard medley which will count 10 points each.

Pansies Continue to Lead Flower Basketball League

The Pansies will attempt to maintain their 300-331 lead over the second place Roses in the Flower basketball league this week when the last round will be played.

Close behind the Roses are the Violets with 325 points. The Daisies have 314, the Brain Trust, 295, and the Tulips, 291.

Intramural Meeting

Intramural baseball representatives from each school and division of the University will meet in Max Farrington's office Wednesday afternoon at 4 p. m. to draw a schedule and plan the coming season. An effort is being made to interest the Law School in organizing a team and a representative from that school is desired.

With the bowling teams' championship a matter for the record, all eyes are turned toward the Second Annual Interfraternity Sweepstakes at 8 p. m. Saturday, when the leaders of the past season will battle it out for individual honors.

The scene will be the same as last year, the Rendezvous Alleys.

All of the leaders have signified their intention of rolling and much of the individual rivalry existing during the past matches will again be evident. Everett Woodward (D. T. D.), defending champion, is anxious to repeat, but the 352 mark of last year will probably go by the books as the class of rolling has been higher this year.

Three members of the champion Phi Sig team, Plant, Jackson, and Hoover are entered, and will again combat their rivals of last week, Wildes, last year's runner-up, Walstrom, Hill, and Pomeroy, of the T. U. O. team.

Hoffman, who finished third last year, and Hawes, Sigms Nu, and Hix, Delta Tau Delta, are other sterling entries.

The entry fee for the event is $1 and includes the cost of rolling. Bowlers not yet entered can do so by calling Everett Woodward at Col. 5485-W.

(Continued on Page 6)

SPORTS

TUESDAY
March 19, 1935

The University Watchet

TUESDAY
March 19, 1935

SPORTS

Reinhart, Oregon Mentor, To Coach Buff Courtmen

Phi Sigs Capture Greek Bowling Crown; Sweepstakes To Be Rolled Saturday

Theta Upsilon Omega Defeated in Second and Third Matches

One Pin Decides Second Game; Hoover Comes Through

By Everett Woodward

The turning point of the Interfraternity bowling season occurred Saturday night as the League B champions, Phi Sigma Kappa, came from behind to win the second game of the playoff with Theta Upsilon Omega. By winning the second game the Phi Sig's threw the match into a tie and then continued on to win the third game and the title of the Interfraternity Bowling Champions of 1935.

Like the famous "long count" of the Dempsey-Tunney fight, the 10-run eighth inning rally of the Athletics against the Cubs, and the "pre-called home run" by Babe Ruth in taunting the same Cubs, the one pin decision by Phi Sig over T. U. O. in their second game had the same effect as a complete demoralization of the opposition.

T. U. O.s Take Lead

Picture a victory-flushed T. U. O. team, winners of the first game by 30 pins, overtaking a Phi Sig lead in the second game by means of Wildes' last box splurge and coming down the stretch 6 pins up with the ever reliable Pomeroy at anchor.

Now the Phi Sig picture. Established as pre-game favorites, losers of the first game, their star bowler Plant in the throes of a 98 game slump, the Phi Sigs saw a second game lead of 16 pins swept away, and their anchor man Hoover, fine but erratic bowler, faced with the necessity of making a mark to win.

Hoover Beats Pomeroy

Hoover, the erratic, makes a strike and the crowd goes wild. Pomeroy cuts out 7 pins and faces an easy spare. Same old story. But no "faithful Pom" misses and only picks up 10. "Pom" cuts out 9 pins this time and another chance to spare. A mark is a sure win as Hoover collects 8 on his mark and has 2 pins to get with his third ball. "Pom's" ball goes just a little to the left and he makes a 10, thus tying the total pinfall. Hoover needing a single pin, comes through with the all important stick, and so changing the entire picture again.

Plant, with a new lease on life, gets back in stride, cracking out a 127 game, giving him high set of the evening. The change is contagious, as the Phi Sig lineup chalks up marks similar to the manner in which they won their league title. T. U. O. on the other hand is lethargic. The single pin margin has taken its toll and the end is but a matter of time. Only four marks are made by the entire team as it rolls a dismal 434 and loses to the Phi Sig count of 541 by a margin of 106 pins.

Ruley Is Scholar As Well as Athlete

The prevalent impression that athletes are rather "tough" mentally, as well as physically, is belied by the attainments of Henry (Red) Ruley, varsity basketball player.

Ruley, who has won two letters in his two years of varsity competition, has a 4.00 average. This is equal to an A in every subject. For the benefit of those skeptics who will murmur that the A's were made in "snap" courses, the fact is that "Red" Ruley is Pre-Med student, and will get his B. S. degree in biological science at the June Convocation.

"Red" also has several off-time occupations besides basketball. He is a champion table tennis player, an instructor in zoology. He can use any type of business calculating or bookkeeping machine and is an expert typist and stenographer.

Ruley and his roommate, Hal Kiesel, have the highest marks in the Varsity house. Hal has maintained a 2.88 or B average.

"Red's" home is in Louisville, Ky., where his father is a member of the faculty of a commercial college. He was born in St. Joseph, Mo.

Bill Myers, assistant backfield coach and "Governor" of the varsity house, says that "Red" is a naturally brilliant student and well liked by the boys in the house. Perhaps one of the reasons for this amity is the tutoring dispensed by Red to his fellow "laborers in the cause."

Title Match

Phi Sigma Kappa	First Game	Second Game	Third Game	Total
Plant	106	88	127	321
Jackson	105	88	96	289
Beasley	77	88	77	242
De Felice	109	111	90	310
Connors	108	98	121	327
Hoover	108	100	108	316
Totals	608	465	541	1614

Middies, Terrors Defeat Riflemen

By Harley Climpson

Showing a decided reversal of form, Buff and Blue riflemen went down to defeat by a score of 1403 to 1327 at the hands of a determined squad of Navy sharpshooters in a shoulder-to-shoulder match shot on the Annapolis range Saturday. The defeat knocked the Parsonmen out of a first place tie with the Middies in the Middle Atlantic League standings.

Team	Prns.	Kneel.	Stand.	Pts.
NAVY	98	94	89	281
Blumen	100	95	89	284
Nicholson	99	93	88	280
Rutherford	99	93	87	281
Dorner	99	93	87	281
Lynech	99	95	85	279
Totals	495	469	439	1403

GEORGE WASH. Buff and Blue riflemen went down to defeat by a score of 1403 to 1327 at the hands of a determined squad of Navy sharpshooters in a shoulder-to-shoulder match shot on the Annapolis range Saturday. The defeat knocked the Parsonmen out of a first place tie with the Middies in the Middle Atlantic League standings.

Official computations of the Western Maryland telegraphic

(Continued on Page 6)

Fraternity Bowlers To Roll Saturday for Individual Championship

Woodward, '34 Winner, Defends 352 Mark Against New Stars

With the bowling teams' championship a matter for the record, all eyes are turned toward the Second Annual Interfraternity Sweepstakes at 8 p. m. Saturday, when the leaders of the past season will battle it out for individual honors.

The scene will be the same as last year, the Rendezvous Alleys.

All of the leaders have signified their intention of rolling and much of the individual rivalry existing during the past matches will again be evident. Everett Woodward (D. T. D.), defending champion, is anxious to repeat, but the 352 mark of last year will probably go by the books as the class of rolling has been higher this year.

Three members of the champion Phi Sig team, Plant, Jackson, and Hoover are entered, and will again combat their rivals of last week, Wildes, last year's runner-up, Walstrom, Hill, and Pomeroy, of the T. U. O. team.

Hoffman, who finished third last year, and Hawes, Sigms Nu, and Hix, Delta Tau Delta, are other sterling entries.

The entry fee for the event is $1 and includes the cost of rolling. Bowlers not yet entered can do so by calling Everett Woodward at Col. 5485-W.

(Continued on Page 6)

Webfoot Leader Will Also Tutor Pixlee Backfield

Appointment Kills Ripley Rumors; Coached at Oregon 11 Years

By John Busick

Coach Jim Pixlee yesterday confirmed rumors that William J. Reinhart, of the University of Oregon, had been signed as varsity basketball and backfield coach. Reinhart will report here next September to take up his duties with the football squad when training begins at Camp Letts, Md.

Pixlee's statement definitely killed announcements Sunday that Elmer Ripley, who resigned as basketball coach at Yale last week, would come here.

The athletic director said that Reinhart was an addition, not a replacement, on the coaching staff, and that both Len Walsh and Roland Logan were expected to return in the fall. Walsh will continue as head line coach while Logan will serve as assistant line coach and trainer. Logan, now trainer of the Boston Red Sox, will probably continue as freshman basketball coach.

At Oregon 11 Years

For the past 11 years Reinhart has been basketball, baseball, and backfield coach at Oregon, from which he was graduated in 1921. His court team was third in the Pacific Coast race in the season just finished, trailing Southern California and Oregon State. Last year it was second to Washington on the coast.

Reinhart has won two conference championships in basketball, and has coached at the University of Oregon for 11 years.

New Coach

William J. Reinhart is the coach from Oregon who will augment the present staff. He coaches basketball and football backfield.

Soft Ball League New Intra-Mural Sport for G. W.

George Washington will play soft ball this spring—intramural soft ball in league competition—it was announced yesterday by Max Farrington, assistant athletic director. It will be the first soft ball at G. W.

Candidates for soft ball, intramural tennis singles and doubles, golf, and horseshoes will be required to sign up in the gym this week.

Last year's winners were Paul Gellman, tennis singles; Gellman and Max Kay, doubles; La Mar Campbell, golf; and Robert Mel-polder, horseshoes.

Duke, Va. Poly Newcomers On Tennis Schedule

Eight Games Listed; Pitt, First Opponent, To Be Met April 11

Duke and V. P. I. are the newcomers on the eight-match varsity tennis schedule announced by Max Farrington, assistant athletic director and tennis coach. The team opens its season here April 11 with the strong Pitt outfit. For the first time in several years all of the matches are listed at home and probably will be played at the Columbia Country Club, scene of all Colonial tennis activity for the past five campaigns.

Both Duke and V. P. I. have appeared previously on the Buff net card but are returning after a lapse of several years. The Blue Devils were second to North Carolina in the Southern Conference last season and are again expected to be one of the South's leaders. The Virginia Poly team had indifferent success last year.

Three Letter Men Back

The teams returning to the list again, in addition to Pitt, are Lafayette, Johns Hopkins, Delaware, Temple, and Washington and Jefferson.

Three letter men are expected to be in the group which turns out for the first meeting of candidates tomorrow at noon. They are Captain Teddy Pierce, Wilbur Langtry, and Sammy Walker. Pierce has played two seasons while both Langtry and Walker played their first.

(Continued from Page 6)

"Bill" Bell '36 says—

The chesty suit designed and shown by Grosner of 1325 F Street which went over so big last fall, is more popular than ever in the new spring patterns. (Adv.)

AFTER DEEP CONCENTRATION...

GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

"I'M AIMING TOWARD the statistical end of the insurance business," says Whiting, '35. "And is it a job! Higher mathematics and their practical application, slide rules, logarithms...all jumble up when I'm tired. Another thing: I have a job at night—sometimes don't get a chance to study until I'm through. But a Camel helps to keep me going—and I can concentrate again and feel wide awake. Camels are never harsh to my throat. They are mild and gentle, yet have a marvelous flavor—a flavor that never tires my taste. I am a steady smoker, but Camels never disturb my nerves." (Signed) F. DELAND WHITING, '35

"CAMELS ARE MOST POPULAR in our set. They taste so mild and good—and they give you a 'lift' when you need it. I'm a steady smoker, but Camels never jangle my nerves, and I never tire of Camel's taste." (Signed) EMILIE BAGLEY, '35

MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS IN CAMELS

"Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand."

(Signed) R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY Winston-Salem, North Carolina

TUNE IN! HEAR THESE FAMOUS STARS

Walter O'Keefe, Annette Hanshaw, and the Casa Loma Orchestra...over coast-to-coast WABC-Columbia Network

TUESDAY 10:00 p.m. E.S.T. 8:00 p.m. M.S.T. 9:00 p.m. C.S.T. 7:00 p.m. P.S.T.

THURSDAY 9:00 p.m. E.S.T. 7:00 p.m. M.S.T. 8:00 p.m. C.S.T. 6:00 p.m. P.S.T.

WALTER O'KEEFE

CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!

Elections Set-up Begins Operating For April Polling

Notice Posted, Nominating Petition Forms Are Distributed

With the posting of notices on all campus bulletin boards, and the distribution of nominating petition forms from the office of the dean of the Columbian College, the new elections set-up, adopted by the Student Council several months ago, started functioning yesterday. The offices to be filled at the elections, which will take place April 17 and 18, are the president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer of the Student Council; the president-at-large and delegates from nine schools to the Senior Council; and the presidents, vice presidents, secretaries, and treasurers of both junior and sophomore classes of next year.

Petition Required

In order to have his name placed on the ballot on election day, a candidate must submit a nominating petition to the office of the dean of the Columbian College not later than 5 p. m., Wednesday, April 3, bearing the names of a set percentage of the students whom he seeks to represent.

In the case of the four general officers who are to be elected to the Student Council from the student body at large, this percentage amounts to 275 students. In the case of the officers of the junior and sophomore classes, only 75 signatures are needed.

Number Undetermined

The number of names constituting the five percent required to nominate a candidate for membership on the Senior Council is yet to be determined, according to Ross Pope, chairman of the elections committee of the Student Council.

The elections rules, as posted yesterday by Pope's committee, provide in part that candidates must be students in good academic standing, and that candidates for class offices must file affidavits to the effect that they expect to be members of the classes which they seek to govern. The president of the senior class must have held at least one five-point activities position, as provided by the Council constitution.

The rules provide further that no student shall sign more than one petition for any office, under penalty of having his name stricken from all petitions on which it appears.

Reinhart Is New Basketball Coach

(Continued from Page 5)
In 1925 and 1926, which he claims was his best team. He has experimented with all types of play but favors the fast breaking game so popular in the West. Both the fast break and the slow break with block plays were used by Logan, but it is probable that Reinhart will stick exclusively to the system used by Ted O'Leary for two years. Pixlee, too, favors the fast break.

As backfield coach of the Web-foot, Reinhart tutored such stars as John Kittmiller, who made the all-American in 1930, and Mike Mikulak, who received similar honors in 1933. In 1931 he had a fleet pair of halfbacks under his wing, Temple and Gee, who played a big part in Oregon's sensational defeat of N. Y. U.'s powerhouse in New York that year.

That eleven, and the team of 1933 which was tied with Stanford for the Pacific Coast title, are the best turned out at Oregon during Reinhart's long stay there.

Has Success With Nines

In baseball he has been more successful, perhaps, than in any other sport. His nines won the conference crown three years in a row from 1926 through 1928 and came back last spring to cop the flag again. He thinks his team this spring will be one of the finest ever in the conference and he has high hopes of keeping the championship at Oregon.

Reinhart claims Osborn, Mo., as his birthplace as does Pixlee. His family moved to Eugene, Ore., home of Oregon U., when he was 12 years old. Now in the late thirties, Bill matriculated at Oregon, left school to enter the Army for two years where he was active in athletics, and returned to school in 1919. That year Oregon met Harvard in the Rose Bowl, the latter winning 7 to 6, but Bill's quarterbacking was not at fault. Later he alternated at halfback. He was a three-letter man, winning numerals in basketball and baseball, as well as football.

Returned Last Night

He joined the coaching staff immediately upon graduation and served in a minor capacity until 1924 when he took the first of his important jobs, varsity basketball coach.

A life-long friend of Pixlee's, Reinhart has been here since last week. He began his long journey home by plane last night where he will immediately begin work with the baseball team.

Phi Pi Epsilon Elects Dorothy Smith President

Dorothy Smith was elected president of Phi Pi Epsilon, women's foreign service fraternity, at the Kappa Delta House Thursday night. The other new officers who were elected are Barbara Fries, vice president; Frances Crawford, secretary; and Verne Schult, treasurer.

Stannard Expected As Guest of Band

CAPTAIN STANNARD

Captain William Stannard, conductor of the Army Band, is expected to attend the University Band Banquet at the Admiral, Monday, April 8. Captain Stannard, one of the most famous bandmasters in the country, has evidenced an extreme interest in the George Washington Band ever since its formation.

The appointment of the new captain of the Band to take the place of retiring Captain Floyd Sparks will be announced at the banquet following the awards, by Director Malkus. Sparks, the Band's first and thus far only Captain, worked out the letter formations of the Band and commanded the organization on the field for two years. He is now resigning due to graduation.

Coach Pixlee and Ludwig Caminita, activities coordinator, will also speak.

Congress Favors Defense Budget

Murphy Decides Question Following Tie Vote Wednesday Night

The question of national defense expenditures provoked a heated controversy at Speakers' Congress Wednesday night when that body went on record as favoring the increase in the defense budget after a tie vote was decided by the vote of Speaker Murphy.

William Gausmann and Ben Coleman upheld the affirmative, while Arthur Barnhardt and Charles Colman maintained the negative stand. In the open forum which followed, the discussion included diverse phases of the armaments question. Howard Garville, a visitor from the Y. M. C. A. school's Speakers Congress brought laughter and applause from the Congress in an oratorical denunciation of William Randolph Hearst.

The topic for debate next Wednesday night will be, "Resolved: That G. W. students support the student strike scheduled for April 12."

Two new members, Roger Cerioni and Doroteo Vite, have been voted in.

Duke, Va. Poly On Tennis Card

(Continued from Page 5)
Promising men coming up from the freshman squad are Joe Dial and Spencer Howell who showed enough to warrant serious consideration when the squad begins practice. Other likely aspirants are Paul Gellman, winner of the intramurals last year, and Max Kay, who teamed with Gellman to cop the intramural doubles.

Pitt Seeks Revenge
With this small group of experienced players on hand, and other prospects uncertain, the team begins with its toughest opponent, Pitt, and may expect trouble right off the bat. Rain cancelled the Panther match last spring but in 1933 the Buff won its first net victory over the Smoky City boys on their own courts. Revenge would be sweet for the Blue and Gold.

April 11—Pittsburgh
April 23—Lafayette
April 26—Johns Hopkins
May 3—V. P. I.
May 8—Duke
May 10—Delaware
May 16—Temple
May 17—Wash. & Jeff.

Here's How!

Treat yourself and your date to an evening of real enjoyment. SEE Ernest Abt mix the best at the beautiful Crystal Bar. And with that pleasant prelude, prepare yourself for an enjoyable evening of dining and dancing.

MARYLAND CLUB Gardens

18 minutes from the Congressional Library on Pennsylvania Ave., one mile past the District Line. Hillside 0600

Edwards Presents Financial Record Of Co-op Drive

$1056 Still in Treasury; $876 Spent on Functions To Date

Of the money collected from the Co-op drive, $1056.36 remains in the treasury and $876 has been expended, James Edwards, chairman of the drive, told the Student Council Thursday.

Three hundred and fifty dollars was turned over to the Alumni Association for the Homecoming Ball, while $800 was spent for the grand ballroom at the Willard Hotel for the Student Council Dance October 12 and the Junior Prom December 14.

Fifty-seven dollars was expended on the Sophomore Hop, while the Freshmen class dance committee has been given $25 as down payment on the Freshmen Frolic to be held at the Kennedy-Warren Friday.

Expenses for the Co-op drive, including printing, prizes, and telephone calls, were $104.24; approximately five per cent of the total collections.

Three hundred and thirty-one Co-op books were sold, with payment incomplete on only 34. Holders of these 34 books, unless paid for in full, will not be admitted to future functions financed in part by the Co-op, Edwards said.

Middies, Terrors Beat Marksmen

(Continued from Page 5)

match returned the Terrors the victor over the G. W. targetmen by a score of 1374 to 1370. This match was fired last week, but the official scores were just released by the National Rifle Association. The defeat by the Terrors, early season weakling opponent of the league, was the second league match the Colonials have lost this season.

Definitely eliminated from a contending position for the league championship, the Buff and Blue targetsmen will meet V. P. I. in a telegraphic shoot this week-end.

Libby Plays Theodora, But Is Too Convincing

By Dick Croyke
An essential part of any actress' job is always to play her role convincingly. Audience and producer alike demand it. But it appears now that the thing can be carried too far.
It all happened during Cue and Curtin's presentation last week of "Goodbye Again". It seems that little Libby Keane, freshman at the University, was cast in the role of Theodora, a nine-year-old child. Short dress, make-up, curls, and a fluffy dog transformed her into the darling little girl.
Ah! but it was all too perfect, too convincing.
Came the end of the show. One irate patron sought out another member of the Board. "And what do you mean," she asked, "violating the child labor law? Don't you know little children like that aren't allowed to appear on the stage?"
Libby may never become a great actress, but she has portrayed one role to perfection. And all because Cue and Curtin rewrote a part for her. Such are the variances of fate!

Social Law Moll's Subject on Forum

Will Also Discuss General Trends in Judicial Procedure

Prof. Walter L. Moll of the Law School will discuss "Law as an Instrument of Social Engineering" on the University Radio Forum to be broadcast over station WMAL Thursday night at 8:30 p. m.

The necessity for growth and expansion of laws to meet new conditions formed through the social, economic, and political changes of society will be pointed out, with seventeenth century England and the U. S. of the period after the Revolutionary War as examples. Professor Moll will also discuss the modern trend in judicial procedure as well as the meaning of law in various countries.

Last Thursday Professor R. W. Gordon of the English Department spoke on "The Folksong" emphasizing the need to preserve these ballads in America.

ART MATERIALS MUTH 710 13th NAT. 6386

Embryo Aviators Hold Conference

National Aeronautic Assn. Will Meet April 2 and 3 in Washington

Students interested in aviation and who would like to attend the first Intercollegiate Flying Conference to be held in Washington under the auspices of the National Aeronautic Association April 2 and 3, should contact Professor Arthur Johnson of the School of Engineering as soon as possible.

The purpose of this conference is to encourage aviation, including power flying and gliding, at all schools. It is being organized by a committee of undergraduates representing schools at which there is now active college flying.

Delegates to the conference from Harvard, Amherst, and Southern California will arrive in their own planes.

The conference is the outgrowth of the meeting of representatives from college flying clubs called by the National Aeronautic Association's contest committee at the suggestion of Grover Loening and held in Washington last December at the time of the award of the Loening Intercollegiate Flying Trophy. Much interest in the new organization is already apparent, and representatives are expected from universities throughout the country.

Presbyterians to Meet
Issues confronting the average Presbyterian University student will be discussed at a meeting of the Westminster Club to be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the Columbian House.

Fraternity Badges
Fraternity Jewelry
College and School Jewelry
Class Rings
Programs
From Favors
Cups, Medals, Trophies
American Legion Jewelry
De Molay Jewelry
L. G. BALFOUR CO.
284 Int'l Bldg., 2nd Floor
1319 F St. N. W.
S. O. Ford, Mgr. NAT. 1045

Coffman Initiates Engineer's Group

Fred Coffman, grand regent of Theta Tau, national professional engineering fraternity, headed the team which formally initiated the members of Phi Theta Xi, local engineering fraternity, into Gamma Beta chapter of Theta Tau at the Lafayette Hotel Saturday.

Officers of Gamma Beta chapter are Edward Baker, regent; J. Harold Link, vice regent; Frank Bailey, scribe; Edward Thomas, treasurer; and Carl O. Hoffman, marshal.

Alumni of Phi Theta Xi living outside of Washington, according to present plans of the officers of Gamma Beta chapter, will be initiated through the courtesy of the Theta Tau chapter nearest their place of residence.

Dr. Ralph C. Williams, assistant surgeon general of the Public Health Service and president of the professional interfraternity conference of 1932, was guest speaker at the banquet following the initiation ceremonies.

Seeger Will Speak To Philosophy Fraternity

Raymond J. Seeger, assistant professor of physics will address Phi Sigma Rho, honorary philosophy club, on "The Relation of Physics to Philosophy" this evening at eight o'clock in Bu-10.

CIRCLE THEATRE

2105 PENNA. AVE.

Home of the Mirror Screen

TUES. and WED.—"DEVIL DOGS OF THE AIR." James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay, Frank McHugh.

THURS. and FRI.—"BIOGRAPHY OF A BACHELOR GIRL." Ann Harding, Robt. Montgomery, Edw. E. Horton. Men were chapters in her biography.

SAT.—"THE WHITE COCKATOO." Jean Muir, Ricardo Cortez, Minna Gombell. Action, laughter, and romance.

SUN.—"THE NIGHT IS YOUNG." Edw. E. Horton, Una Merkel, Donald Cook, Charles Butterworth. Young love in Vienna.

MATINEES: Tues., Thurs., Sat., Sun.

—for that better taste and fragrant aroma

Turkish tobacco leaf is so tiny that each of these bales contains from 70 to 80 thousand leaves. But there's another and greater difference—Turkish is the most spicy and aromatic tobacco in the world.

We have Chesterfield buyers in all the tobacco markets of Turkey and Greece, including Xanthi, Cavalla, Smyrna and Samsoun. And when you blend and cross-blend aromatic Turkish tobacco with mild ripe home-grown tobaccos as we do in Chesterfield —you have a milder cigarette, a better-tasting cigarette.

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.